DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372:

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- A. The various distinct extract components instantly claimed/disclosed - a carpophore extract, a mycelium extract, or a cultural extract obtained from more than two kinds of Basidiomycete fungus (from among the various recited genera).
- B. The various distinct Basidiomycetes fungal genera/species instantly claimed/disclosed.
- C. The various distinct Araliaceae plant genera/species instantly claimed/disclosed.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species from among each of A-C above (i.e., for Group A: elect a particular extract component from among a carpophore, a mycelium, or a cultural extract component; for Group B, elect three or more particular genus/species from among the Basidiomycetes family encompassed by the claims; for Group C, elect a particular genus/species from among the Araliaceae family encompassed by the claims) which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 1, 11, 12 and 13

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Each of the recited extract components, Basidiomycetes genera/species and Araliaceae genera/species are distinct because each represents different structures, genera, and/or species which requires a different search for each.
